St. Maria Faustina of the Blessed Sacrament desired to be transformed into a living Host. Thus she prayed: "Make of me, Jesus, a pure and agreeable offering before the Face of your Father. Jesus, transform me, miserable and sinful as I am, into your own Self (for You can do all things) and give me to your Eternal Father. I want to become a sacrificial host before You, but an ordinary wafer to people. I want the fragrance of my sacrifice to be known to You alone."

One day, Jesus replied: "You are a living host, pleasing to the Heavenly Father."

Yet, this extraordinary grace is not intended for her alone. Jesus desires to transform all souls into "Living Hosts" (if only they would), by calling them to Live in his Divine Will. By learning to perform your daily acts in his Will (as taught within these pages), this transformation can begin to take place in you. For, Jesus told the Servant of God, Luisa Piccarreta:

...in every act done in my Will, the soul encloses Me inside; and I remain sealed within the will of the soul. Consequently, these acts done in my Volition are Eternal Communion. They are not subject to the species being consumed as the Sacramental Hosts are, where my Sacramental Life ends by consuming the species. Rather, in the Hosts of my Will there does not enter either flour or other material. The food, the material of these Hosts of my Will, is my own Eternal Will united to the will of the soul, which is Eternal with Me; and these two wills are not subject to being consumed (Book of Heaven: Vol. 12: Jan. 1, 1920).

Jesus desires to bring souls to live in his Will that his Divine Will may reign on earth as in Heaven. He told Bl. Dina Bélanger:

No invocation responds better to the immense desire of my Eucharistic Heart to reign in souls than:

"Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, may thy Kingdom come through the Immaculate Heart of Mary!"
